

Windermere District Farmers' Institute

Constitution - Membership

(1) The members of the institute are the subscribers of the constitution and the persons admitted to membership in accordance with these bylaws.

(2) Every person desiring to become a member in good standing of the institute shall:

- be involved in the commercial production of agricultural products;
- apply to the secretary;
- agree to conform to and abide by the bylaws of the institute;
- pay the annual membership dues.

(3) Whereas the institute is affiliated with the BC Cattlemen's Association, one member of each production unit owning 5 or more cattle shall also be a member of the BC Cattlemen's Association and unless their fees have been paid through another agency, their annual fee shall be added to the member's institute annual fee.

(4) Members who produce other commodities are encouraged to join their respective provincial commodity group.

(5) A person not involved in the commercial production of agricultural products may apply for Associate Membership

(a) An associate member is invited to meetings, can speak at meetings, can serve on committees, but is not entitled to vote

(b) The associate membership fee is the same as the regular membership fee.

Annual Membership Dues:

Cattle Producers: $30.00 - includes subscription to Country Life in BC
+ BC Cattlemen's Association $125.00 - includes subscription to BEEF in BC
= $155.00

Other Agricultural Producers: $30.00 includes subscription to Country Life in BC

Please fill out form and bring it to the next meeting or

Send to: Petra Downey, Treasurer WDFI
5338 Hwy 93/95, Fairmont, BC, V0B 1L1

Windermere District Farmers' Institute Membership Application

Year: _____

Membership: New ____ Renew _____

Name _____

Farm Name _____

Postal Address _____

Telephone _____

Cell _____

Email _____

Member - Producer of:

Cattle (numbers over 1 year) _____

Other Livestock _____

Other Agricultural Products _____

Associate Member - Area of Interest:

Fee Paid: _____